EDITOR'S CHAIR.

HOW THINGS LOOK FROM OUR STAND POINT.

The Opinion of The Editor and the Opinion of Others which we Can Endorse on the Various Topics of the Day.

SAD FIGURES.

In a recent speech in Congress Mr. Otis, of Kansas, presented some startling figures, collected from the last census reports. There is a sad lesson to be learned from them, and it should be a timely warning to the people, whose rights have been outraged, and shows clearly the need of speedy reform.

He takes the line "manufacturing" States of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, and twenty-one "producing" States, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas, Georgia, Mississippi, Louisiana, North Carolina, Florida, Kentucky, Tennessee, South Carolina, Ohio, Arkansas, Maryland and Delaware.

The population of the nine manufacturing States in 1880 was 14,507,407; in 1890 it was 17,011,595, a gain of 2,504,188, or within a small fraction of 20 per cent. The assessed value of property in these States in 1880 was $7,559,923,915; in 1890 it was $10,614,691,637, a gain of $3,054,767,722, or 41 per cent. The per capita wealth was $528 in 1880, and in 1890 it was $610, a gain of $82 to each person.

In the 21 agricultural States the population in 1880 was 28,243,922, nearly double that of the nine manufacturing States. In 1890, the population of the agricultural States was 31,071,221, a gain of 2,827,299, or slightly over 20 per cent. The assessed value in these States in 1880 was $6,830,554,628; in 1890, it was $8,537,750,255, a gain of $1,696,195,627, or 25 per cent. The per capita wealth was $242, and in 1890, the per capita wealth was $251, a gain of nine dollars to each person in the agricultural States as against a gain of eighty-two dollars to each person in the manufacturing States. These facts and figures are given from official records.

WHAT PER CENT. AGAINST IT?

The following press dispatch has been sent by the agents of Wall Street, the Press Dispatch Syndicate, all over the country:

CAROLINIANS AGAINST FREE COINAGE.

WILMINGTON, N. C., March 26.—At a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce held to-day the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we are opposed to the passage of the Free Coinage bill now before Congress, and that we consider further agitation of the subject at this time as unwise and unpolicy. We are convinced that the measure would bring no relief to our farmers or to any other class of our citizens, that it would unsettle finance and depreciate values, and that it seems possible only to those who expect something for nothing or who have not realized that every honest dollar represents a dollar's worth of toil.

If we were to desire to count the above and tell what a small per cent. of North Carolina are opposed to free coinage, wonder if we could get it sent out as news matter.

THEIR RECORD.

For their good or evil the political parties have recorded themselves as follows on the Silver bill:

Democratic vote for free silver 137
Democratic vote against free silver 82

Democratic majority for free silver 55
Republican vote against free silver 67

Republican vote for free silver 11
Republican majority against free silver 56

Mr. Isaac Trumbo, a leading banker of San Francisco, who has made a special study of Silver and the Money Question, says there is a steady increase in the amount of business in the country, and a constant shrinkage in the volume of money. He claims that at the beginning of the war we did a $15,000,000 business, had a $22 per capita. That last year we did a $60,000,000 business, but our circulation had been contracted to $12 per capita, and that there was an absolute need of more money.

THEN LET'S GET BACK TO DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES.

We believe that the evils that now afflict us are due to a departure from Democratic principles, and that there will come no better times until these principles are given force and effect. —Joseph Daniels in State Chronicle.

Speech of Hon. B. F. Grady.

AN ABLE AND INTERESTING PRESENTATION OF TRUTHS.

HIS MAIDEN EFFORT.

We give below a few extracts from a speech of Hon. Mr. Grady in Congress last week. We wish we were able to give it in full. It is replete with burning truths and facts. He fully sustained his reputation as a man of ability, and reflects credit upon himself and his district. In this no one who knows Mr. Grady will be disappointed, and we feel safe in predicting an enviable record of our Congressman.

All the people of the Union who gain their daily bread by the sweat of their faces have been disappointed and the mutterings of their discontent can be heard in every quarter of the Union. And I trust, sir, that this discontent will swell in volume until it compels the favored classes—the aristocracy of this country created by the laws of Congress—to listen to the cries of distress and loosen the shackles they have placed on the people.

The justification, Mr. Chairman, for the contraction of the currency by converting it into interest-bearing bonds, has been that it was to sustain the "honor of the nation." To it I have to say that if my people are to be reduced to beggary in order to save the "honor of the nation," the "honor of the nation" is a curse to them instead of a blessing. The "honor of the nation" has always been the excuse for oppressing the people. The Pharisees were the special custodians of the "honor of the nation"; so were the patricians of Rome; so was Charles I; so were the lords of the manor in England; and so are the protected and privileged classes of this country.

The farmer is the slave of the plutocrats, while the only limit to their rapacity is the exhaustion of his resources.

In behalf of the laboring people of this country, in behalf of the coming generation of my country, in behalf of the tranquility, and general welfare of the country, in behalf of the pets of the Government, who are rushing along the road traveled by the optimates of Rome, and the luxury and idleness of France, I implore the law-makers of this Union to retrace their steps, to stop the robbery of the people, and to repair as far as they can the money power.

The poor and the helpless will be forced to bear the burdens of government, while the millionaire, the banker, and corporation magnate will be exempted.

The loanable capital in all New England and New York is $270 per capita; in North Carolina $6.47. With this small sum we have to pay our State and county taxes and more than $8 per capita to support the Federal Government.

One century of government under the Constitution therefore, Mr. Chairman, has been a century of injustice to the laboring and the poor of the country, and the promises of wrong in the beginning of the Government have been fully realized.

We have the enormous unearned wealth in the hands of the few, willingly contributed or freely out, corrupting the voters of the country. We see it combining in syndicates and trusts to control the prices of the necessities of life. We see it controlling the transportation facilities and dictating ruinous freight rates. We see it dictating nominations in political conventions. We see the people's money squandered in subsidies to remedy the evils of our shameless and arrogant protective system.

In conclusion, Mr. Chairman, I wish to remind those who can wear purple and fine linen and live on the fat of the land at the expense of their fellow-countrymen, that the time may come, as the wheel of fortune makes its inexorable turns, when their children may become the victims of the class legislation which they are struggling to fasten on the country as a permanent policy. [Applause on the Democratic side.]

THEY MADE THIRD-PARTY MEN.

Maj. Robbins and his gang made more third-party men in Ireland last Saturday than Polk, Butler and the Alliance have made in five years. Bossism is fast playing out in this country. Some will not realize it till it is too late.—Hickory Mercury.

The Bland free-coinage-of-silver bill is regarded as practically dead. Speaker Crisp refused to report a cloture unless a majority of the Democrats of the House would sign a petition requesting the committee on rules do so, and it is regarded as impossible to get a majority to sign such a petition. Mr. Bland has made a statement, charging Speaker Crisp with having acted in bad faith towards him. The speaker denies the charge.

A sale under the vagrant act took place in Fayette, Mo., last week, when three negroes were sold on the block to the highest bidder. One brought $25 and another $5 and the third $1. The negro element is highly incensed and threaten to have revenge.

At the University commencement Col. A. M. Waddell will deliver an address on the life and character of Hon. Wm. L. Saunders.

The Central Committee has called the State Committee to meet on April 7th, and we suppose some important business will come before the body.

An "Ellis Carr" club has been organized in Edgecombe county in the interest of that gentleman's nomination for Governor.

SOME PROMINENT PEOPLE.

John D. Rockefeller's income from his Standard Oil interests is probably nearly $7,000,000 a year.

Ex-Senator Ingalls is reported to have declined an offer of $10,000 a year to edit a Kansas City, Mo., evening paper.

Congressman Stone, of Kentucky, owes his life to his wife, who, when a young girl, found him lying dangerously wounded after one of the battles of the Civil War, and taking him to her father's house nursed him back to health.

Mrs. Harrison, wife of the President, is reported to have made great progress in her art studies, to which she has devoted much time during her seclusion in the White House. She has become especially skillful in water-color work.

Ex-Senator Edmunds, of Vermont, takes only cases of importance and his smallest retainer is $2,000.

A MOTHER'S MEDICINE CHEST.

The mother of every well-regulated household should possess a family medicine-chest. It may be in the form of a little corner medicine-closet, that can be procured in any city, or a simple box; but it must have a lock and key. The case should contain:

A roll of old linen; some flat; Some rubber adhesive plaster; A small glass syringe; A few fine, soft sponges; Some lint; Some linseed oil; A solution of bromide of sodium, four grains to the teaspoonful, labeled with the name and strength of the solution; A medicine tumbler.

Many of the drugs often placed in such lists are not mentioned above, as it is not well for the mother to give medicine indiscriminately and for every slight ailment.

THE TARIFF QUESTION OPENED.

There is one sentence in McMillin's speech [when he opened the tariff debate] before the House of Representatives, says the New York Herald, which summarizes the tariff situation very forcibly:

"The laborer has been forced to pay more for the roof that shelters him, for the hat that covers his head, and the woollen that covers his back. He has had to pay more for the linen he wears, the hammer and hoe with which he works. Yet his wages have not gone up one cent. What benefit has increased protection to him?"

WATCH.

Be on your guard, and do not be misled by the wily politicians, who are seeking offices. Every effort will be made this year to thwart the purpose of the laboring and the poor of the country, and the promises of wrong in the beginning of the Government have been fully realized.

We have the enormous unearned wealth in the hands of the few, willingly contributed or freely out, corrupting the voters of the country. We see it combining in syndicates and trusts to control the prices of the necessities of life. We see it controlling the transportation facilities and dictating ruinous freight rates. We see it dictating nominations in political conventions. We see the people's money squandered in subsidies to remedy the evils of our shameless and arrogant protective system.

In conclusion, Mr. Chairman, I wish to remind those who can wear purple and fine linen and live on the fat of the land at the expense of their fellow-countrymen, that the time may come, as the wheel of fortune makes its inexorable turns, when their children may become the victims of the class legislation which they are struggling to fasten on the country as a permanent policy. [Applause on the Democratic side.]

RELIGIOUS AND SECULAR NEWSPAPERS.

This I say in favor of our secular journals. They are, as a rule, larger, heartier, lazier in dealing with adversaries, are more generous in their judgments, more active in the cause of true charity, are full of "sweetness and light," are more truly and nobly Christian in a word than most of our so-called religious newspapers.—From a Sermon by Rev. J. H. Blynn, of New York.

During the war a large amount of bombs and other ammunition was thrown into Buffalo bayou, near Houston, Tex., to avoid capture. On Wednesday a boy named Charlie Harris got one of the bombs out of the bayou, took it home and succeeded in exploding it with an ax. He succeeded. One foot was blown off his leg, in his groin and another in his head. The stable where he experimented was blown to atoms.

The Old Fellows' Orphan Asylum at Goldsboro will be ready for occupancy as soon as it can be furnished and officers will be elected on Saturday.

The Central Committee has called the State Committee to meet on April 7th, and we suppose some important business will come before the body.

An "Ellis Carr" club has been organized in Edgecombe county in the interest of that gentleman's nomination for Governor.

NOTES AND ITEMS FROM CONGRESS AND WHAT IT IS DOING.

Some Bills Introduced—Personal Mention.

Here are the House figures of interest to North Carolina in the River and Harbor appropriation bill: North Carolina—Harbor: Beaufort, to complete, $10,000. Rivers: Inland waterway between New River and Swansboro, $10,000; same between Beaufort and New river, rejected; same between New River and Beaufort, $30,000; Doekwocky Folly river, $15,000; Ocracoke Inlet, $3,000; Pasquotank river, to complete, $15,000; Cape Fear above Wilmington, $7,000; Contentnea creek, to complete, $15,000; Neuse river, $5,000; Pamlico and Tar river, $15,000; Roanoke river, $5,000; Fishing creek, $9,000. The following were rejected: Black, Yadkin, Lumber and Trent rivers.

The pure food bill was reported favorably from the committee on agriculture.

Justice Lamar is convalescing.

Senator Gorman, who has been sick, has resumed his senatorial duties.

The Democratic members of the House Ways and Means committee are in favor of the final adjournment of Congress June 1st.

It is said President Harrison and cabinet are well pleased with the conciliatory tone of Lord Salisbury's last note on the Bering sea question.

In the United States Senate Mr. Vance, from the Judiciary committee, reported a bill to pay United States district attorneys fixed salaries.

The death of the late Senator Geo. Hearst, of California, has been for some time announced, and eulogies were delivered by Senators Stanford, Felton, Stewart, Vest, Voorhes and others. As an additional mark of respect the Senate adjourned until Monday next.

Senator Vance has suffered very much recently with sore throat. He is now much better.

Congressman Grady made a very strong speech on the tariff bill.

The business of the House of Representatives "in an unusually forward condition, and the prospects for an early adjournment are excellent, unless the Senate delays it."

Senator Morrill, who has been ill, is considered out of all danger.

The interstate commerce commission has denied the application of defendants for a rehearing of the case of the Delaware State Grange of the Patrons of Husbandry against the New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk Railroad Company, the others.

In the United States Senate, Mr. Morgan, of Alabama, introduced some free silver resolutions, and on Monday evening, after a long discussion of the question, regardless of the feelings of democratic and republican presidential candidates, the resolutions were voted.

The cruiser Raleigh was successfully launched at the Portsmouth (Va.) navy-yard. After the launching ceremony of the Navy Tracy went to Fort Monroe, where he spent the night.

The House committee on banking and currency has decided to report a bill for the organization of an international American bank.

In the United States Senate, Mr. Stewart, of Nevada, gave notice that he would on Monday next move to take up Senate bill to provide for the free coinage of silver and gold. In the.

Senator Sherman introduced a resolution in executive session for the dismissal of Mr. James R. Young, executive clerk of that body, the charge being that he had furnished to the press the proceedings of the secret sessions of the Senate. Mr. Young and his friends indignantly deny the charge.

The report is again current that Secretary Blaine will soon retire from the State Department and that Secretary Tracy will succeed him.

An interesting analysis is furnished of the vote in the House of Representatives on the motion to table the silver bill.

Numerous scandals will have to be explained by Republican orators when the campaign opens.

It is generally believed that the motion to consider Senator Stewart's free-coinage bill will be defeated in the Senate when it comes to a vote.

SECULAR AND SACRED.

REV. THOMAS DIXON HOLDS ALL LEGITIMATE BUSINESS AS SACRED.

A Prelude on Dr. Parkhurst's War on Vice in New York City—Side Remarks on Governor Hill and Tammany—The Faithful Preacher's Duty.

NEW YORK, April 3.—Rev. Thomas Dixon, Jr., returned to his pulpit this morning after a lecture tour of two weeks from the west. The regular sermon of the day was preceded by a review of current events, entitled "Dr. Parkhurst's Bomb," in which most hearty support and approval were extended to his militant neighbor, whose church is just across the street from Association Hall. He said:

It has been suggested, since the recent explosion of a sacred bomb from the Madison square pulpit, that a worthy successor to Dr. Croly has been found in Dr. Parkhurst by the directors of the Society for the Prevention of Crime. True, and they have found a man of aggressive power who will press the work far beyond any point ever before reached in its history.

DIGNITY OF A CORPSE.
With all my heart I welcome him to this work. I bid him Godspeed. I extend to him the right hand of Christian sympathy and fellowship. May his heart never grow weary and his arm never grow weak. We of course mingle our tears with those who spell their piety with a capital P, over the fact that so great a preacher has fallen into sensationalism. This is too bad. But then, after all, it is well to remember that a dead preacher never makes a sensation. The most dignified preacher I ever saw was a corpse.

What response has been given to this terrible indictment of New York's municipal life?

All the friends of truth and righteousness have given generally most hearty support so far as the public press has spoken.

SAMBO AND THE CHICKEN.
And yet a few decent newspapers have expressed regret that the preacher denounced crime so vigorously without having in his possession documentary evidence to fix the crime on individual criminals! What nonsense! The fact of crime is one thing; the fastening of that crime upon the individual culprit is another. It is not necessary to find fathers in the teeth of Sambo to know the fact that have lost a chicken. It is my duty to proclaim my loss. The fixing of guilt is the duty of the officer of the law. The failure to fix that guilt does not restore the chicken or make my loss any the less a painful fact.

THE RESPONSE ON THE PART OF THE CRIMINALS DIRECTLY affected has been quick and painful. Tammany has wept copiously, crying, "glorious! a splendid feat! Tammany weeps not at her own sin, but at the degeneracy of the modern pulpit in falling so low as to mention its name before a decent audience. Well, it is rather hard on the audience, but hard things must be done sometimes, if Tammany's sense of the sacred and the worshipful is shocked!

And then the keepers of houses of ill fame whose business has been so completely disrupted by this episode have joined their melodious voices with the chorus of Tammany and Tammany's brilliant hand organ hard by the city hall, and all together these three birds of a feather were a dirge over the harm done the morals of the young by this indecent preacher! This trio weeping over the wounded morals of the city forms a spectacle that should bring tears to the pavement stones of the Bowery!

PERHAPS BY THE SEA.
Dr. Parkhurst has only touched the facts. He might have gone much further. With that positive sense of a child in a new world, to whom all was a revelation, he has only picked up a few pebbles on the seashore of a city's faithlessness shame!

Is it possible to prove that the sun shines at noon because an owl hoots at the idea? Bah!

Do we not all know that police captains enter office poor and come out rich, and grow rich on a salary ranging from $1,000 to $5,000 a year? Is it not a revelation, when he has only picked up a few pebbles on the seashore of a city's faithlessness shame!

Only last Saturday a gentleman told me that to his personal knowledge the police captain of his district had lived for years in the rear of a notorious house of prostitution, and that the citizens of that street had appealed in vain for redress. To uncover these villainies is next to impossible, because they are secreted in the shadows of the law itself.

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE?
But who is really responsible for all this (Tammany is a minority, and always has been). The citizen king who forgets it on the day of election. The criminal upper classes who prove traitors to their country and their God by looting instead of voting. The men who please to call their private lawlessness—leave the affairs of the city to go to the devil. The preachers of the past and present who have spoken smooth things and cried peace, peace, when there was no peace. The preachers called to proclaim the kingdom of righteousness who have been awed into submission by bullies and commanded to hold their tongues, and have held them, and gone on winning and sniveling and visiting old women and children, while the world has laughed at them as sexless monotroities!

ADAM AND JUDAS AND MOSES.
If for the last twenty years we had heard less about Judas Iscariot and more about his modern successors, there would be fewer of his ilk still holding the bag. If we had heard less about the fall of Adam and more about the fall of our aldermen, the population of Canada might have been much larger, with corresponding benefit to us. If we had heard less about Moses and more about the mayor, we might be nearer the ideal of Moses today.

Let Dr. Parkhurst get on with his work. But what will come of it? The kingdom! The kingdom of righteousness at last! But the real remedy will be found at last, not in the courts, but in the hearts of the people. A campaign for the prevention of crime to be efficacious must begin before the primaries, continue till the sun goes down on the day of election and promptly begin again next morning.

CRUSHED.

Alas! She Did Not Notice the Change in Him.

"You seem preoccupied, Mr. Hankinson." "I was not aware of it, Miss Irene." The young man answered her in an embarrassed way. He had shifted his position again and again, as if uneasy about something, and had looked furtively at her from time to time with a surprised, wistful, laboriously unconscious expression, such as may be seen

My Spring and Summer stock of Dress Goods, Fancy Goods, Notions and Shoes has never been equaled in Clinton. Come one and all now to

W. S. PARTRICK'S.

We are now opening and will in a few days display one of the finest stock of Clothing, Shoes, Hats and Dry Goods ever brought to Clinton. We have bought our goods very cheap and we will be able to give every one who calls on us good goods for a small sum of cash. We are only selling for cash, therefore we have no losses to make good out of those that buy for cash. Our opening day will be Saturday next and we hope every one in this country will give us a call in order that we can show him or her how cheap our goods will be sold. We will not give prices now, but call on us before you buy and you shall know all about our goods and the prices thereof. We have added several new lines of goods and shoes, especially, we would like everybody to see.

LOCALS.

—Steel roofing is being placed on the law office of Mr. Lee's.

—The County Democratic Executive Committee meets Saturday, the 10th instant, in Clinton.

—Read our campaign offer. We give

THE CAUCASIAN from now till the election for fifty cents.

—Rev. Mr. Wooten will conduct services at the Episcopal Church Sunday morning and at night.

—A. F. Johnson & Co., are making preparations for their new Spring Goods, which will soon be ready. They ask you to wait, and before you buy examine their stock.

—Mr. M. Hanstein is just back from the Northern Markets, where he has bought a full line of Clothing, Dry Goods, &c. He asks you to examine the same before buying elsewhere.

—A weather signal bureau has been established here. Mr. W. S. Partrick has charge of it. The signal flag can be seen at the top of Old-Fellows' Hall. Call at the store of Mr. Partrick and obtain a descriptive card.

—Mr. D. P. Dameron, assistant postmaster, tells us that during the month of March 3,918 pounds of mail were received at this office and 2,704 pounds sent. An average of ninety pounds per day and one hundred and thirty received.

—We make two special offers to subscribers this week. Carefully read and consider them. This is to be one of our most important political campaigns and we expect to keep up with it, and those interested in politics should take The Caucasian now.

—Prof. W. R. Skinner arrived here on Monday night, and has been busy this week making all necessary arrangements in moving. He expects to open his school in a few days. Two boarding scholars came with him. We hope he will build up a good school in Clinton. It is needed.

—Fife meeting at Wilson was a success. There were three hundred professors. Of the two hundred cards returned, sixty will join the Methodist church, fifty the Baptist, thirty the Presbyterian, twenty the Episcopal, and the Disciples. $440 was raised for expenses and a $500 check given to Mr. Fife.

—We return our thanks to our young friends, Messrs. T. J. James and W. A. Finch, for an invitation to the third annual debate between the two Literary Societies at Trinity College, on the 22nd instant. The query for debate, Resolved, "That the payment of no pensions at all would be better than the present system as administered."

—Mr. L. C. Hubbard was presented this week to a very handsome and valuable communion and baptismal set by Mr. and Mrs. Ohas. Scranton, of New Haven, Connecticut, for the use of the Methodist church here. This is a very appropriate and serviceable present, and we feel sure is highly appreciated by the members of that church.

—Mr. William Dickson Pearsall, father of Mr. Oscar Pearsall and Mr. Philander Pearsall, of this city, died yesterday at the residence of Mr. Oscar Pearsall. He was a native of Duplin county, one of its most prominent citizens, and before the war was the county clerk there for years. His wife was a Miss Whitaker, of Wake county, whom he married in 1841. Some four years ago he removed to this city and has since resided here.—Wilmington Star.

Mr. Pearsall was well known by the older citizens of Clinton, by whom he was so highly esteemed.

—The Goldsboro delegation to the launching of the "Raleigh" from the Portsmouth Navy Yard have all returned, and yesterday Mr. M. L. Lee was the recipient of hearty congratulations from his many friends here over his escape from serious injury from the crashing in of a large shed under which he was standing at the time of the launching and in which some serious injuries were sustained by others in the way of broken arms and fractured legs and serious bruises. Mr. Lee received some facial bruises, which while painful are not serious. It was a narrow and fortunate escape.—Goldsboro Argus.

THE SAMPSON LIGHT INFANTRY.

The Largest Company in the State Guard—A Band to be Organized—Memorial Services.

Our military company now stands at the head of the State Guard. At their meeting last Thursday seventy-five new men were received in ranks, swelling the roll to 110—the largest in the State. The regulations allow only 95, but a band of several pieces is to be organized, which will reduce the membership to the necessary limit.

Capt. T. H. Patrick, who is absent from the State, sent in his resignation and Mr. E. W. Kerr was elected Captain. We believe Capt. Kerr will make a worthy and efficient officer, and add much to the company's usefulness.

Rev. Dr. B. F. Marable was elected Chaplain, and a memorial service of the late Maj. W. L. Faison will be held this Sunday.

This company is one in which we should feel a deep interest, and every encouragement should be given it. We hope the new members will take that interest which is necessary for its continued success, and be punctual in attendance and a performance of every duty.

The Clinton Literary Association.

Met at Miss Anna Bizzell's last Thursday night. This being the time for the election of officers, the following were unanimously elected:

President, Henry Hines.

Vice-President, Miss Florence Faison.

Secretary, Miss Ida Ashford.

Librarian, Miss Addie Bizzell.

The President appointed the following executive committee: Dr. J. A. Stevens, Misses Florence Faison, Annie Ashford, Messrs. D. M. Patrick and T. M. Lee.

The Library will be moved to the store of Mr. Wm. A. Johnson. Meeting will be held monthly in future.

The next meeting will be held at Dr. A. M. Lee's last Friday night in this month—29th.

Confederate Veterans' Association.

The Sampson Camp of United Confederate Veterans was organized here last Thursday. This is one of the first camps organized in the State. Fifty-one names have been enrolled. Dr. R. H. Holliday was elected commander and O. F. Herring, adjutant. Mr. Herring received a telegram Monday from Adjutant Morgan from New Orleans that this camp had been enrolled as No. 137, and request them to send delegates to the Reunion. They will not send delegates but be represented by proxy. Those who have not joined should do so at once, and let us have one of the best as well as the first camps in the State.

Notice.

The Executive Committee of the Democratic Party of Sampson County will meet in the Courthouse, in Clinton, N. C., on Saturday, the 16th, 1892, for the purpose of fixing the time for holding the Primaries and the County Convention, and transacting such other business as may come before the meeting. It is important that every member should attend at 11 o'clock a. m.

[FOR THE CAUCASIAN. GOD'S LOVE-LIGHT.]

H. A. G.

Out in the desolate midnight, Braving life's battle alone, A stranger to peace and affection, My soul little mercy had known; All of the yearning and longing For friends congenial was vain, Human nature to me seemed a mockery, The price of affection was pain.

All of the darkness and evil, That into my nature was reared, Seemed to struggle fiercely for action, Whenever temptation appeared; Peace, the little healer of passion, To my bosom was seldom a guest; But the Spirit of God hovered o'er me, And my soul was at rest, sweet rest, And now the calm dream of contentment.

To the front of my bosom has crept, And before it has vanished the longing, And impulse that never had slept, Far down, but still potent the glimmer Of Hope lights my being within, And points to a home that is better, And a way that leads higher than Sin. To you sinful man; erring woman, Say, little hope still waits to be given, O' come and partake of God's Love-Light.

That shows us the way unto Heaven. Wallace, N. C., April 5th, '92.

On Our Table.

Bond-Holders and Bread-Winners, by S. S. King, Kansas City, Kansas. A portrayal of some Political Crimes Committed in the Name of Liberty. Facts and Figures from the Eleventh Census, with Maps and Illustrations. Massachusetts Enabled to Accumulate More Wealth than Nine Great Western and Southern States. Pennsylvania More than Twelve. New York More than 15. Agriculture Labor Robbed. Single copy 25 cents. Address The Arena Publishing Company, Boston, Massachusetts.

Is This Your Son, My Lord? A Powerful Realistic Romance, by Helen Gardner, author of A Thoughtless Yes, Men, Women and Gods, etc., etc. This is probably the most fearless and terrible exposure of conventional immorality and hypocrisy ever written. 25,000 copies sold in ten months. It is a book for parents. In ethics it is radical. A fine portrait of the author forms a frontispiece. Price, paper, 50 cents; cloth, $1. The Arena Publishing Company, Boston, Massachusetts.

"The Queen's Prize Problem." Mr. A. and Mr. B. have to cut down a mighty tree. The time taken for Mr. A. to do this tree alone to slay, is sixty minutes—standard time. Beneath B's blow, the bulk sublime goes to the ground in half that time. The question is, how long it is, how long it will take to cut this tree if both begin—one on each side—and thus their labor to divide?

Mr. Quizen will give an elegant Mason & Rich or Steinway Fine Toned Upright Piano to the first person answering the above problem correctly; an elegant Gold Watch for the second correct answer; a fine silver watch for the third correct answer; an elegant Silk Dress Pattern for the fourth correct answer; and many other valuable prizes will be given for the first correct answers from each State. Each person answering must enclose fifteen U. S. two-cent stamps for "The Canadian Queen Galop" latest and most popular piece of fifty cent copyright music issued during the year, just out, together with a copy of The Queen containing full particulars. The object of offering these prizes is to increase the circulation of The Queen, which is about the largest of any publication in Canada. By sending to-day you may secure a valuable prize. Address The Canadian Queen, "X," Toronto, Canada.

SWANWICK RIVER, GA., March 12, 1892.

At the residence of J. D. McCaskill, in Bulloch county, Ga., on Thursday, the 10th of March, at 9 o'clock A. M., Mr. A. L. McCaskill to Miss Nancy Butler. It gives us pleasure to witness the union of two such fine hearts, in one united. It forms a state of friendship of any publication in Canada. By sending to-day you may secure a valuable prize. Address The Canadian Queen, "X," Toronto, Canada.

Mr. McCaskill is a native of Cumberland county, N. C. He has been engaged in the naval store business in this State for several years and has made many friends who extend their best wishes to him and his bride. His bride is also a native of Cumberland county, N. C., and to know her is to love her. She attains all the accomplishments for attraction, admiration and love. Her love, a rose in the bud, spreads its rays over the barren plains of the hearts of all.

Salem Items.

[Special Correspondent.]

Mr. Editor, we wish to correct a mistake. The public debate will be at Salem on the night of April 8th, instead of April 15th, as stated in last week's issue. We expect a lively discussion of a question that will be interesting to all who may attend.

There will be a Union meeting of the Salem Light Infantry at 8 o'clock Saturday, the 9th. We expect some good speeches on the various topics of the day. Come one—come all.

This is to certify that I have been afflicted with Scrofula, or Blood Poison, for a number of years. The best physicians of Mobile and this city said nothing could be done for me. I also took a large quantity of —, but found no relief in anything that I took. My limbs were mass of ulcers, and when I was sent to a physician in Mobile my entire body was a mass of sores. I had given up all hope, and as a last resort tried P. P. P. (Prickly Ash, Poke Root and Potassum) cured the disease, making the patient lively as a ten-year-old.

Respectfully, ELLISA TODD.

Terrible blood poison, body covered with sores, and two bottles of P. P. P. (Prickly Ash, Poke Root and Potassum) cured the disease, making the patient lively as a ten-year-old.

We offer this column to our readers in which to discuss topics of interest and profit to them.—Ed.

The Hog Nuisance.

At the time for the election of town officers and the consideration of questions of moment concerning the good of the town is not far off it is not out of place to call attention to the hog nuisance. A year or two ago a petition was circulated in Clinton praying that the hog be not allowed to run at large and enough names were secured to hold a special election on the question, and "no hog" carried the day, whereupon swine made their exit and remained unseen on the public highway for some months, when for some reason the ordinance was revoked and hogs were allowed to run at large again.

In several parts of town the hogs have rooted up the sidewalks badly, and whenever brick have been laid under the sidewalks they have rooted them up, affording stumbling blocks for pedestrians at night.

Again, if every crack and crevice in fences is not stopped tight, every gate fastened, you are in danger of waking any morning to find your garden ruined and several large "sheds" in possession.

People should not allow their property to prey upon that of other people, and if they cannot pen up their hogs the town should do so for them and charge for it. Give the streets the looks of these of a town, and not of a farm yard.

SOUTH CLINTON.
Oh! ye little tin-crumpers, who will win the prize for April? Come to the front, establish the good work, each and all of you. Libbie Summerlin received the prize for March.

Miss Emma Matthews, accompanied by her sister Martha, are on a visit to Mrs. A. J. Seavey's. A good time of course will be result of a long expected visit. And as they are going to help hand the sewing.

Poor Jim is grieving that he can't go. We think he is trying to learn to sing "Home, sweet home," as he is building a neat little house.

Mrs. Catharine Ezzell departed this life, March 26th. Consecration of the liver was the trouble for three days and nights. She was attended by her children—four sons and four daughters. Also the neighboring friends during her illness. She was well matured in years, hence, fully ripe for immortality, a state of existence she so much rejoiced in, to meet those who had gone before, to greet her.

The farmers and truckers are busy. Some of them are anticipating a fair yield from beans, peas, potatoes, turnips, etc., etc. We trust they will not be disappointed or disappointed. If there are any people on God's green earth that need encouragement at this time it is the farmer and truckers of this section. They have scarcely any money, and what little they have they have invested in preparing their lands for the varied crops. Your correspondent would like to know why the Sunday-Schools of Sampson county were not represented at the eleventh annual State Sunday-School Convention, held in the beautiful city of New Bern last week. He can't believe it was for the want of interest in this great and noble cause, for the different union meetings held, for the purpose of appointing delegates to the convention, seemed to be at tip-top interest, and some delegates from each denomination were elected to attend. O, no, it could not have been for the want of interest, for your correspondent thinks he knows the hearts of some of the gentlemen and lady delegates appointed. He must think the cause of our non-representation was for the want of money. Nothing else. I hope some one will explain why this important work in our Master's vineyard was not attended to.

The New Bern Daily Journal gives a very interesting account of the work done during the session. At the close a collection was taken up amounting to $1,200 contributed for State work. The meetings were harmonious and the hospitable people of New Bern gave the guests in attendance no cause to complain.

JOHNIE REB.

NORTH CLINTON.
A goodly number of people gathered at Brown's Church on the fourth Sunday in March and organized a Sunday-School under very favorable auspices. Mr. Howard was elected superintendent, which speaks well for a flourishing Sunday-School.

PINEY GROVE.
Goshen High School has still a large enrollment, notwithstanding the fact that several have stopped school to work. Professor Ezzell is a successful teacher.

Rev. J. M. Ashby preached a very able sermon to a large and attentive audience last Sunday at Goshen Church.

The Goshen Demorest Club will hold their next contest at Poplar Grove on Saturday night before the second Sunday in April.

Our farmers are very serious in discussing what they shall plant this year. In fact, they do not know what to do.

Married, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. S. R. Daughtry, Mr. J. M. Weeks to Miss Della C. Daughtry, Rev. J. M. Ashby officiating. The attendants were, Mr. Willie Weeks for the bride, Mr. J. M. Daughtry, Mr. J. M. Daughtry with Miss Roscoe McLamb, Mr. Curtis Hobbs and Miss Celia Cary, Mr. G. W. Sutton and Miss Ophelia King. After the marriage a very sumptuous supper awaited the crowd. They all did it with justice. Delightful music by the bride added great pleasure to every one. These young people are among our most highly esteemed and universally loved by all, and their host of friends give their best wishes for their future success and happiness.

D. MINGO.

Mr. J. P. Jackson has recently opened a school at West school-house with a bright prospect for a success. Mr. Jackson has just closed a school at Maple Grove a few weeks ago.

Miss Missouri Lee, of McKoy, N. C.

We understand there is a young man teaching school near Newto Grove, who is a great smoker. He can light his pipe and burn newspapers at the same time. We hope hereafter when he smokes he will bear the honors of it himself. Much success to him in teaching.

OUT OF THE WAY.

TAYLOR'S BRIDGE.
All ye who love the pleasurable sports prepare your rods and tackle, for 'tis time to go angling.

The lusty shad is here to bless us again. Their welcomed appearance here in our Six Runs recalls to mind the lines of our poet laureate setting forth their mythological origin, also that of the strawberry:

"When the angel made shad
The devil was mad,
For it seemed such a feast of delight,
So to ruin the scheme
He jumped into the stream
And stuck in the bones of spite."

"When the strawberries
First illumined their bed
The angel looked down and was glad,
But the devil 't said,
Fairly punished his head,

"Where is the girl of long ago?" sings out a clever bachelor, who is despairing because Leap Year has brought him no success. We saw her the other day, brother, but she isn't a girl anymore. She had gray hair, a wart on her nose, had no teeth, and wore specs.

It is gratifying to know that by far the larger part of our citizens are boy-cotting such newspapers as publish nothing but lying statements regarding the people's measures and their advocates before the people.

The latest "craze" in this township is the "do not move-or-you-will-break-your-halter-kiss" introduced into society circles by Miss —, who claims for it that it possesses many advantages over the ordinary vulgar kiss. Selah! J. O. M.

WESTBROOK'S.

ALLIANCE NOTES, DISCUSSIONS AND THE DOINGS OF THE VARIOUS LODGES.

[The CAUCASIAN was adopted as the Official Organ of the Sampson County Alliance at the meeting in January 1890, 1891.]

Notice.
The White Oak Union will be held at Salem Lodge the second Saturday in April, at 10 o'clock. All bring baskets and everybody invited.

The Alliance Union of Honeycutt's township will meet with the Lodge at Salem April 9th, 1892. All the lodges composing said Union will please have their delegates there promptly at 10 A. M. on that day. We hope to have the President of the N. C. F. S. A. present with us. Business of importance will be brought before that meeting, and it is therefore very important that a full meeting be in attendance.

D. W. Tew, Sec'y.

MASS MEETING.
On Saturday, March 26th, a good number of the citizens of Franklin township, favoring reform, met in mass meeting at Newton's X Roads. On motion L. D. Highsmith was called to the chair and J. W. Lee requested to act as secretary.

The chairman, on taking the chair, very satisfactorily explained the object of the meeting, either adopt or reject the platform put forward by the St. Louis Conference, February 24, 1892.

The preamble and platform was read by the chairman amid cheers.

The motion to endorse and ratify was carried unanimously. Interesting, stirring, enthusiastic and patriotic speeches were made by the chairman, and L. R. Highsmith, both speakers did full justice to the occasion.

On motion the secretary was requested to send a copy of the proceedings to THE CAUCASIAN for publication.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.

L. D. HIGHSMITH,
Chairman.

J. W. LEE, Secretary.

The opposition are cordially invited to attend and take part in all meetings, though, impartial, non-partisan discussion is desired.

DON'T DIVIDE ON LOCAL QUESTIONS.
The enemies of the Order are continually devising snares to catch the unwary members of the Alliance. Watch if some local question upon which exists wide difference of opinion among the brethren, is not proposed for your consideration. It has been done, and if we are not mistaken there are signs of such a scheme brewing now. All members remember that no local question should be brought before the Order upon which we are not a unit.—Ex.

A WARNING.
OFFICE ALLIANCE PUB. CO.,
239 North Capitol St.,
Washington, D. C., March 29.

The sub-treasury bill may be abandoned by certain members of Congress if doubtless, and their positions to some extent in certain directions may be strengthened by such action. But when adjournment day arrives and their faces are turned homeward, it is quite probable that conditions will begin to change rapidly. The feeling of legislative importance which prevades so universal at the national capital and permeates so thoroughly every one who occupies a seat in either chamber, will gradually be eliminated as the dome of the Capitol vanishes from sight, and the thoughts of their distressed and mortgaged pidden constituents fill their minds.

Every hour's travel and every mile nearer home will bring more vividly to mind the probable consequences which in this case is quite sure to wait upon broken promises and unfulfilled pledges.

Sowing faces will be met at the end of the journey instead of the glad shouts of "well done, good and faithful servant," many questions will be asked instead of praise and commendation, and a general feeling of resentment will be found to have taken the place of the heart felt "God speed" and "good will" of a few short months ago.

It will be found that the people have kept a strict account of their actions, and are ready to approve or condemn, as they deem proper, without fear or favor. Because of this they will not consent to a betrayal of the sub-treasury plan or suffer it to be ignored or discredited.

That plan has been the foundation rock of their present education. It has proven the unswerving source from which true principles of economics have been obtained and the right light by which the tricks and fraud of passed legislation have been exposed. No other economic proposition has met with such universal approval, or become more thoroughly rooted and grounded in the hearts of the common people, the producers of the nation. Those members who were elected through their professed allegiance to this plan will learn to their sorrow that by abandoning it they have "sown to the winds only to reap the whirlwinds" of indignation from their trusting but deceived constituents. Every member who has been recreant to his duty or unfaithful to the expressed wishes of his people will find that excuses and explanation will neither satisfy the outraged feelings of the people or prevent them from meeting out summary political vengeance on the offenders.

The plain facts are, that professed adherence to the sub-treasury plan sent at least thirty members to Congress, absolutely pledged to its support, and many others under strong obligations to give it favorable consideration. What is the status of this bill to day, and what has been done by its recognized champions to bring it up for discussion? Absolutely nothing effective. Those who were the loudest in their advocacy of the measure, while contesting their election, are disclosing the least interest in its fate at the present time. Is this just or fair to the men whose fidelity and confidence compassed their election? If any are so stupid as to place their faith in the forgiving spirit which has heretofore to a large extent obtained among the people in regard to political offenses, they are certain to meet with disappointment. Wherever and whenever these rancoriferous with their ballots, they will be speedily and deservedly consigned to political oblivion. The time for deception in politics has passed, and an era when true men are demanded has come. Let all take warning, and bear in mind that rewards and punishments commensurate with duties performed or neglected will be the iron rule of the people in the future.

MERCURY'S ANSWER.
"How may the Alliance and the friends of reform best secure the Recognition and Enforcement of our Principles?"

The Progressive Farmer, some time ago, asked the above question. Every week in publishes several answers to it, which, though differing in detail, show a unanimity of thought, proving that the true solution is fast being reached.

We think the best way to do this is to first convince ourselves that we are right; then with clear-cut, fair argument, convince others that we are right and are determined to persist unto the end, voting for men only, irrespective of calling, business, profession or political affiliation who, we have good reason to believe, feel as we do, and who have the moral courage and backbone, in the face of all opposition, to have them enacted into law, let the result be what it may, assured, that if others can stand it, we can.—Hickory Mercury.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years it was accounted a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by P. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally, and reaches from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address,

Our Farmers' Column.

SOMETHING INTERESTING TO THOSE WHO TILL THE SOIL.

"There is no material progress that is well based and permanent without agricultural progress."

DIVERSIFIED CROPS.
In an able article on reducing the acreage of cotton in the South, the Wilmington Star tells in the following extract what our Southern country would be if the planters would raise diversified crops:

"How different Southern plantations would look and how different the South would be if the plantations were divided up into cotton fields, grain fields, clover and grass fields, corn fields, with a good big garden and a nice orchard near by, instead of being all cotton, as so many of them are; cotton field after cotton field, nothing to break the sameness unless the green woods that may be between."

If every plantation of a hundred acres, say, had ten for grain, ten for orchard and small fruits, with garden, potato patches, etc., and larger and smaller farms divided up in the same proportion, and each supplied with good stock, the Southern farmer would soon be the most prosperous in the world, and the South the richest agricultural section on the globe. When all the cotton delusion vanishes, all this may come, but a good start will never be made in that direction until it does vanish.—N. C. Bulletin.

THE FARMING THAT PAYS.
Last year Mr. J. J. Price, of this county, hired a lot of hands, planted considerable cotton, bought his supplies, raised six bales of cotton and came out at the little end of the horn. This year he decreased the acreage of cotton, increased that in corn, and with the help of a ten year, girl, he made two bales of cotton and five hundred bushels of corn. He has proven to his satisfaction that the way to make money in farming is to plant less cotton and more corn. His crop of corn this year is worth more than the six bales of cotton he raised last year and the cost of raising it was less than fifth. And besides he has two bales of cotton as a surplus.—Shelby Review.

PREVENTING POTATO ROT.
In a report to the Pennsylvania Horticultural Association C. T. Fox told of an interesting experiment made with a view of checking the potato rot. On half of the potatoes devoted to this experiment had the tops off and removed as soon as they showed any signs of the rot, and the other half remained uncut. On digging the crop all the potatoes from the treated portion of the field were found to be "perfectly sound, while those from the other portion were unfit to use."

COTTON WHEAT, AND GOLD.
We have said recently that it would now require more pounds of cotton to pay off the remainder of the national debt of the United States than it would have required to pay off the whole debt in 1865. The America Almanac for 1888 gives the figures. The highest price of upland cotton in 1865 is therein stated at 35c., and the public debt at $2,844,649,626. It 1886 the price of upland cotton is stated at a little less than 6c. per pound, and the public debt at $1,783,438,698. In other words, 8,533,948,878 pounds of upland cotton, selling at the highest price for 1865, would have paid off the entire public debt; whereas it would have required in 1886 19,637,825,678 pounds of cotton, selling at the highest price for 1886, to pay off the same debt, though the government had, between 1865 and 1886, paid off more than a thousand millions of that debt, and paid the same in gold.

The highest price of wheat in 1865 was $1.88. In 1886 the highest price was 95c. per bushel. So that a man owning a debt of ten thousand dollars in 1865 could have paid it off with 6,000 bushels of wheat, whereas it would have required more than ten thousand bushels to pay a debt of the same amount in 1886.

Let us not do injustice to our free-silver friends. They have a right to be heard when they enlighten us.—Richmond Dispatch.

Specimen Cases.
S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was cured with neuralgia and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucken's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large FEVER sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box of Bucken's Arnica Salve cured him entirely.
